

Section 6. Quorum.
The presence of a majority of the members of the Executive Committee at a meeting duly assembled shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 7. Voting.
A simple majority vote by the Association's Executive Committee shall suffice for conduct of business unless otherwise called for under Article V (General Powers) of the Rules and By-Laws.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

Section 1. Number of Officers.
The number of officers of the Association shall be seven: President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Historian, Librarian, and Curator.

Section 2. Election and Terms of Office.
Each officer shall be elected by the Executive Committee of the Association at its annual meeting designated for this purpose and shall hold office until the next annual meeting or until death or until that person shall resign or shall have been removed from office. All officers shall be members of the Executive Committee of the Association; any member of the Association may nominate any member of the Association for any regular office at the annual meeting. No member of the Association's Executive Committee can hold more than one office in the Association at any time.

Section 3. Removal.
The officers specially designated in Section 1 of Article IV may be removed either with or without cause by a vote of the majority of the whole Executive Committee of the Association at a special meeting of the Committee called for that purpose.

Section 4. Resignation.
Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Executive Committee of the Association or to the President or the Secretary of the Association.

Section 5. Vacancies.
A vacancy in any office because of death, removal, resignation, or any other cause, shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term to be filled by a majority vote of the Executive Committee of the Association.

Section 6. President.
The President shall be the chief officer of the Association, and shall serve as its representative to the Old Hickory Council. The President shall be subject to the instructions of the Association's Executive Committee, shall have general charge of the affairs and business of the Association and control over its other officers. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Executive Committee of the Association and shall appoint such committees as deemed necessary.
