

Section 11. Librarian.

The Librarian shall collect, categorize, and maintain reference materials for use by members of the Association. The Librarian is responsible for analyzing existing publications and other documents of the museum, and making recommendations as to the purchase of other needed materials to make the museum collection more complete. The Executive Committee of the Association shall designate an appropriate location for the library. The Librarian shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the President and/or the Executive Committee of the Association.

Section 12. Curator.

The Curator shall establish and organize materials received by the Association. The Curator shall ensure the proper inventory of all items including manual and computer documentation and the administration of Gift Agreement and other related forms. The Curator shall work closely with other members of the Executive Committee, or other personnel hired on a temporary basis, for aiding in the inventory and organization of museum materials. The Curator shall perform such additional duties as from time to time may be assigned by the President and/or the Executive Committee of the Association.

Section 13. Coordination of Duties.

The Executive Committee of the Association shall determine what duty should be performed by which officer in the event that responsibilities become intermingled.

ARTICLE V

General Powers

Section 1. Finances.

All funds of the Association shall be handled according to the policy of the Old Hickory Council, with the cooperation of the Treasurer of the Association and the Executive Committee of the Association. Operating, capital and acquisition expenses shall be paid from the General Fund of the Association. By majority vote of the Association Executive Committee, special restricted funds may be established.

Section 2. Membership Dues.

Dues shall be collected annually in an amount set by the Association's Executive Committee. Dues shall be payable to the Treasurer of the Association.

Section 3. Fiscal Year.

The fiscal year of the Association shall be the same as the fiscal year of the Old Hickory Council.

Section 4. Amendment to By-laws.

The by-laws may be altered, amended, or replaced, and new by-laws may be adopted by a majority of the members of the Executive Committee of the Association at any regular or special meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present; provided, however, that at least ten (10) days written notice have been given of the intention to alter, amend, or repeal or to adopt new by-laws at such meeting. Amendments to the by-laws must be reviewed and adopted by the Executive Board of the Old Hickory Council.
